PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1	Failure to maintain accurate records of all transactions.
2	Improper handling of confidential information.
3	Non-compliance with data retention policies.
4	Failure to implement adequate security measures.
5	Improper disposal of sensitive data.
6	Failure to conduct regular security audits.
7	Non-compliance with industry standards.
8	Improper access controls.
9	Failure to provide employee training on security.
10	Non-compliance with privacy regulations.

Special Condition # 18: You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising probation officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: Terrell Tullos violated conditions of his supervised release by consuming marijuana on or about November 6, 2017, contrary to special condition number 18 of his supervised release.

On June 29, 2015, Terrell Tullos signed his judgment for case number 2:06CR00035-JLQ-3, indicating he understood all conditions ordered by the Court. Specifically, Mr. Tullos was made aware by his U.S. probation officer that he may not use illegal controlled substances while on supervised release.

On November 6, 2017, Mr. Tullos was summoned to the vendor site to participate in a random urine test. The sample was tested and returned a presumptive positive reading for marijuana. On November 11, 2017, the above-referenced specimen was confirmed positive for marijuana metabolites from Alere Toxicology Services.
